Eric- the below email reflects the exchange that Mike Sachs of my office had with Matt Levine today. Am I right to assume it's ok to send Matt the Everytown materials you provided to us? If yes, I'll scan and forward them to Matt, unless you want to provide me with an updated setl for me to email to him. I'll keep posted and let you know if and when he wants to meet. Carey

I spoke with Matt Levine - in his previous life working for Janet Reno and in another job, he was a gun control advocate. He is interested in learning more but, would not, of course, commit the superintendent. I told him we will get him copies of the information that Eric Tirschwell shared with us. He said he would review, speak with his insurance regulators, and then, most likely schedule a meeting with us and Eric. All of which I think is positive. Matt will be in our meeting today with the Superintendent and GCA.
